Dean to lobby legislature for funds

By John Baldwin
Staff Writer

Keith Sanders, dean of the College of Communications and Fine Arts, is being sent to Springfield for the remainder of the semester to lobby for more funding for higher education.

The move is part of a joint effort by the 12 state universities in Illinois, the Illinois

Board of Higher Education and the State Board of Education to increase funding for state education at all levels through a state income tax increase.

"There was agreement among system heads that Sanders is the one person in the state who could do the job and do it well," Chancellor Lawrence K. Pettit said Monday, announcing Sander's reassignment.

Sanders served as the University's lobbyist from 1980 to 1983. He was instrumental in getting the state to implement a temporary tax increase in 1983, which helped SIU stay "competitive with peer institutions," Pettit said.

He also was a member of the SIU-C Alumni Association

Board of Directors from 1970 to 1978 and was association president in 1978. One of the functions of the association is to solicit donations from alumni.

Illinois universities are betting on Sanders' ability to loosen the Legislature's purse strings. Pettit noted Illinois

Reagan says 'We're not finished yet'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Ronald Reagan, insisting "we're not finished yet," invited Congress Monday to work with him in his final year as president to create policies needed to guarantee a legacy of prosperity, strength and lasting peace.

"We are strong, prosperous, at peace and we are free," Reagan told a joint session of Congress and nationally broadcast audience.

"This is the state of our union, and if we will work together this year, I believe we can give a future president and a future Congress the chance to make that prosperity, that peace, that freedom, not just the state of our union, but the state of our world."

As he trumpeted a resurgence of political and economic freedom, the twin goals of his conservative revolution, Reagan sought in his seventh State of the Union address to remain a force to be reckoned with in the twilight of a presidency weakened in 1987 by scandal and defeat.

Reagan stressed cooperation and bipartisanship in the lame-duck year of his administration, reaching out to a Congress controlled by Democrats who will be searching for ways to help put a member of their party in the White House for the first time since 1976.

Reagan took note of the battle that will precede the November election and asked that he and Congress "pledge to each other that we will keep foremost in our hearts and minds not what is best for ourselves or for our party, but what is best for America."

Looking back over the last seven years and ahead to his place in history, Reagan took credit for "an economic and social revolution of hope" at home and "a complete turnabout, a revolution" in America's standing around the world.

Big-Muddy search continues

By Steven Starke
Staff Writer

The search for missing University student Ricky Johnson was suspended Monday afternoon because of cold weather.

Johnson, 19, has been missing since Saturday, when his canoe capsized in the Big Muddy River near Murphysboro.

The cold front that entered the area Monday made it impossible to continue the search on a full-scale basis and until the front passes, search efforts will be minimal, Murphysboro police said.

Conditions on the river, which is 10 feet above normal and choppy than usual, also have hampered the search.

Full-scale search efforts will resume in a couple of days, when the cold front is expected to pass, police said.

Johnson, a forestry student, was canoeing with a friend along a stretch of the river between old and new routes 13 in Murphysboro when their canoe tipped over in the icy waters. He is presumed drowned, police said.

Gunman gets seven year sentence

By John Mohler
Staff Writer

Assault charges have been dropped against a Carbondale man who was shot after he refused to surrender a gun to police.

However, the man, Terry Lee Jones, was sentenced to seven years in prison for violating his probation by possessing a firearm, prosecuting attorney Michael Nieskes said Monday.

Nieskes said the assault charges were dismissed Jan. 17 in favor of giving Jones, 24, of Carbondale Mobile Home Park, the maximum sentence for the felony probation violation.

Nieskes said Jones was taken to Menard Correctional Center in Chester. He could be transferred to another facility later, Nieskes said.

Jones was convicted in 1986 of burglary and carrying a concealed weapon. He was sentenced to two years probation. Under the terms of the probation, Jones was prohibited from carrying a weapon.

Jones was hospitalized Oct. 8 after a Carbondale police officer shot him after Jones allegedly refused to surrender a gun Jones was holding to another man's chin. The incident occurred outside the Cadillac Lounge in the 200 block of North Washington St. According to court records, when Officer James A. Temple ordered Jones to drop the gun, Jones walked across the street to Carter's garage. Jones raised his gun and Temple fired five shots in response, the records said.

Jones was admitted to Carbondale Memorial Hospital with bullet wounds to the lower

Prosecutor's body found hours after his kidnapping

MEDELLIN, Colombia (UPI) — Police found the bullet-riddled body of Attorney General Carlos Hoyos Jimenez Monday just hours after suspected drug traffickers kidnapped him and killed two of his bodyguards, authorities said. Mayoral candidate Andres Pastrana, who was abducted eight days ago, was rescued earlier by police searching for Hoyos, an arch foe of the Colombian cocaine cartel.

Phillipine official's son killed during election

MANILA, Philippines — Gunmen killed a city official's son Monday during delayed local elections in five provinces where thousands of troops backed by helicopter gunships and World War II-era planes were deployed to prevent widespread violence. Government and military officials reported scattered cases of vote-buying, "flying voters" who tried to vote more than once and the discovery of fake ballot boxes, but said the massive military buildup succeeded in holding violence to a minimum.

Accused Nazi criminal's trial begins in Israel

JERUSALEM (UPI) — An Israeli prosecutor began summation of the case against accused Nazi war criminal John Demjanjuk Monday, relating chilling accounts of the Treblinka death camp where 850,000 people died in 1942 and 1943. The former Ohio autoworker is accused under Israel's Genocide Law of crimes against humanity and the Jewish people for allegedly using a whip and sword to herd prisoners into the gas chambers of the camp in Nazi-occupied Poland. If convicted, he could be hanged.

New president of Suriname ends military rule

PARAMARIBO, Suriname (UPI) — Hindu businessman Ramshewak Shankar became the new president of Suriname Monday, ending nearly eight years of military rule in the troubled South American nation with a call for improved relations with the Netherlands and the United States. Shankar, 50, was sworn in as the former Dutch colony's fourth president.

Ortega offers concessions in letter to Reagan

WASHINGTON (UPI) — In a conciliatory letter, Nicaraguan leader Daniel Ortega told President Reagan too many people have died in the 6-year-old Contra war, and offered a series of security-related concessions as an inducement for renewed bilateral talks. Ortega offered to negotiate limits in the size of Nicaragua's armed forces, to remove all foreign military advisors, to ban foreign military bases in Nicaragua, and to prevent its use as a staging base for leftist insurgencies in the region.

Soviets visit classified U.S. nuclear grounds

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — Soviet scientists traveled 65 miles by bus Monday to the classified Nevada Test Site, the U.S. nuclear proving grounds, to begin a five-day visit aimed at working out procedures to verify each nation's underground nuclear weapons tests. The 20-member Soviet delegation arrived in Las Vegas late Sunday as part of a reciprocal agreement reached during last month's Washington summit between President Reagan and Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev.

Policeman's funeral leads to racism dispute

DALLAS (UPI) — A white police officer killed by a black vagrant on a downtown street symbolizes a division between police accused of racism and a City Council blamed for fostering hatred toward police, participants said Monday. Leaders of the Dallas Police Association met Monday to discuss asking Mayor Annette Strauss and three Council members — two blacks and one Hispanic — not to attend Tuesday morning's memorial service for slain Officer John Chase.

Valid signatures could force a Mecham recall

PHOENIX (UPI) — Arizona Secretary of State Rose Mofford announced Monday she has verified more than enough signatures to force a recall and said she would call a new election unless Gov. Evan Mecham resigns in five days. Mofford, a Democrat who would become governor if Mecham resigns, said she would notify the Republican governor on Tuesday that 301,032 signatures were valid, well above the 216,746 needed to force a new election. An election tentatively has been set for May 17, with an official announcement expected Feb. 1 if Mecham does not resign.

Simon obtains key backing from state house members

LANSING, Mich. (UPI) — Paul Simon picked up four key endorsements Monday from state legislators who say the Illinois senator is the most likely candidate to be elected of the seven men seeking the Democratic nomination for president.

"Simon's experience at both the state and the federal levels is what sets him apart," said Rep. David Gubow, D-Huntington Woods. "People have only one reservation regarding Simon and that is he can win. No one has ever given him the credit to draw votes."

Gubow said once the voters see Simon in action, winning primaries and caucuses, they will see his strengths as a candidate.

Gubow was joined in endorsing Simon by Reps. Tom Alley, David Hollister and Debbie Stabenow and Democratic Party activist Mike Dudley.

In a written statement, Simon said he was heartened by their support.

"The enthusiasm with which these distinguished party and elected officials have embraced my candidacy... is only matched by the elation with which I receive such expressions of confidence in my campaign," said Simon.

Stabenow, D-Lansing, said recent polls showing former U.S. Sen. Gary Hart is favored by 29 percent of Michigan's Democratic voters — compared to Simon with 5 percent — are inaccurate and merely reflect name recognition, not popularity.

"I think we're looking strictly at name recognition,"

Stabenow said. "Clearly, (Hart) has captured the fascination of the press."

Hollister, D-Lansing, said that while Simon is not as flashy as the other six candidates in the Democratic race, he has the substance to win.

"He is not a media-hype person," Hollister said. "No one's going to say he made it on his looks. That's clearly not his strong suit."

Hollister said Simon's background as a newspaper publisher, intellectual, state lawmaker and U.S. senator make him qualified for the position.

Alley, who has supported Hart in the past, said he decided not to sign on to Hart's rejuvenated campaign because he felt the candidate lacked the ability to win the nomination.

Marine gets honorable discharge

QUANTICO, Va. (UPI) — A former Moscow embassy guard who was convicted and demoted for his role in last year's sex-for-secrets scandal has been honorably discharged from the Marine Corps, a military spokesman said Monday.

Sgt. Robert Stufflebeam was honorably discharged from the Quantico Marine base last Friday after submitting a "request for separation" in mid-December, said Gunnery Sgt. Dean Chamberlain.

The discharge was a matter of paper work and did not have to be reviewed by an internal discharge board, Chamberlain said.

Stufflebeam, 25, was convicted in September on two counts of dereliction of duty during his tenure in 1985 as deputy commander of the Marine guard security contingent at the U.S. Embassy in Moscow.

Chamberlain said he did not know why Stufflebeam was given an honorable discharge in light of his conviction. Stufflebeam was not available for comment.

The prosecuting attorney at the September court-martial asked that Stufflebeam be demoted to corporal and given a "bad conduct" discharge, but he wasn't.

Stufflebeam was demoted from staff sergeant to sergeant, after his court-martial panel found him guilty of frequenting bars deemed off-limits to Marines.

Stufflebeam was second in command at Moscow during the so-called "sex-for-secrets" scandal that led to the recall of the embassy's 28-guard detachment.

March of Dimes fund-raiser set

By Amy Gaubatz
Staff Writer

About 200 University students are expected to participate in a fund-raising drive for the March of Dimes Saturday.

With collection canisters in hand, volunteers will knock on doors and ask for donations to help fight birth defects.

One of three events planned to raise money for the organization this year, the drive marks the second consecutive year University students will take part in the annual Mothers March for the March of Dimes. The campaign raised $5,000 in 1987.

Carbondale will be divided into sections of 23 to 25 houses and the whole city will be covered.

University Housing officials have organized fund-raisers to take place throughout February. Local physicians and business leaders designated as "pace setters" by the March of Dimes also will raise funds in the community. The amount of money raised in the campaigns will be announced at a reception at Stonehouse on March 1.

Registration for the March is at 10 a.m. Saturday in the Student Center. The march begins at 11 a.m. and lasts until 2 p.m.

Director of music school to be featured in concert

Organist Robert Roubos, director of the School of Music, will be featured in a concert beginning at 8 p.m. Wednesday, in Shryock Auditorium.

Part of SIU-C's "Music of This Century" series, the program will begin with a solo performance of "Shimsh B'Koli (Psalm 130)" by Vincent Persichetti.

Roubos will perform Norman Lockwood's "Concerto for Organ and Brasses" with Robert Allison and Guy Kammerer on trumpet, James Owens and Robert Weiss on trombone and Eric Mandat conducting.

Roubos will be assisted by percussionists Michael Hanes and Ronald Spaeth, and Robert Mueller on celesta, in a rendition of David Pinkham's "Concertante."

Admission is $2 for adults and $1 for students.

Bureaucratic trap must be abolished

FORMER SIU-C PRESIDENT Albert Somit's proposal to restructure the Illinois higher education system is a good idea.

Somit's plan would get rid of unneeded bureaucratic bodies and unite universities with similar goals.

Under the plan, the cumbersome system of four governing bodies would be replaced with a dual system. The state's major research universities, University of Illinois-Champaign, U of I-Chicago, SIU-C and Northern Illinois University, would be headed by one board and the remaining universities would be under another.

THE FOUR MAJOR research institutions would be called the State University of Illinois system.

Any move to get rid of unneeded bureaucratic agencies would be a nice change in Illinois, which has, by far, the most governmental bodies of any state. Somit figures the change would save $4 million per year in bureaucratic costs alone.

Many Illinois educational officials, most notably SIU Chancellor Lawrence Pettit, have opposed the plan. Pettit, of course, is among the bureaucrats who stand to lose their jobs if the plan were implemented. The two SIU campuses would not be under the same system, and no longer would need a chancellor's office.

PETTIT ARGUED THAT SIU-C would be relegated to the status of a secondary university to the U of I system. But this is exactly what SIU-C has been for the last 20 years. The Illinois Board of Higher Education consistently gives the U of I system much more funding than any other state universities.

In 1986, for example, the U of I system received $8,780 per student. The SIU system was second with $6,880 per student.

While it is clear that the U of I is one of the nation's top public universities, this does not mean that Illinois cannot have other great public universities. The California public university system, upon which the plan is based, has a number of first-rate public universities, thanks in part to the fiscal equity brought about by the system's structure.

IN ORDER FOR any state university other than the U of I to develop into, or maintain its status as a first-rate institution, state funding must become more balanced. Under Somit's plan, the state would recognize which universities have the potential to move up to the level of the U of I and would make fiscal decisions accordingly.

Unfortunately, the bureaucrats who have the power to influence a decision for this plan, such as the IBHE and officials like Pettit, are the same ones who would be out of work if it were implemented. Thus, it seems highly unlikely that the state legislature will consider a change.

AS IT IS, the Illinois higher education system is stuck in a bureaucratic labyrinth of self-interest. Until the state's educators stop trying to protect their own jobs and begin doing what is best for Illinois, the state may never find the exit.

Illinois, you put us in a bureaucratic state.

Inouye caper assists Saharan Jews

By STEVE GERSTEL
United Press International

In the numerous weeks that pass for a brief holiday on the congressional calendar, a good number of the scattered vacationers were caught with their fingers in the marzipan.

In the hectic days before adjournment of last year's session, only the very major elements of the huge government-wide spending bill made the headlines.

It was only later that the smaller boondoggles came to light.

Although many in the Senate and House dipped into the spending pool on behalf of their states and districts, the most glaring example of "pork" belongs to Sen. Daniel Inouye, D-Hawaii.

Inouye's caper probably is a classic of its genre.

The Hawaii senator slipped into the money bill, which totaled more than $600 billion,

News Analysis

...the most glaring example of "pork" belongs to Sen. Daniel Inouye, D-Hawaii.

a pauper-like $8 million for purposes that have little to do with the United States and absolutely nothing to do with Hawaii.

This money, passed over the vigorous objection of the State Department, which frowns on earmarking money, will be used to help build schools for Saharan Jews in France. Yes, that's correct.

Inouye has been less than voluble in explaining his actions but there seems to be no argument that one of the people actively involved in helping these Saharan Jews is also a generous contributor to Inouye's political campaigns.

The Inouye foray, along with numerous others, again has tarnished Congress's less than shining image. While the members of the Senate and House talk a lot in public about cutting spending and eliminating waste, once behind closed doors they pluck off a million here and a million there.

The practice is so time-honored that members of Congress boast of the goodies they bring to their states — and perhaps that is part of their job.

Sen. Bennett Johnston, D-La., for example, put out a seven-page news release just to make sure no one at home could forget how important his successes are to Louisiana.

Arms control is a tricky business

The Jan. 22 column by Jim Anderson portrayed Kenneth Adelman, former director of the U.S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, as an ideologue who regarded his greatest accomplishment to have been "shooting down arms-control proposals."

It was revealed several paragraphs later that Adelman wrote that his greatest accomplishment was avoiding "arms-control schemes that would have harmed U.S. interests."

Anderson translated this to mean that Adelman was hostile to arms control in general, clearly demonstrating how statements can be taken out of context.

Perhaps this would be the conclusion of someone who believes that arms-control agreements inherently are good and never harm U.S. interests.

President Reagan prompted the notion that nuclear disarmament and peaceful relations somehow have a cause-effect relationship by signing an arms-control agreement without achieving any commitments from the Soviets on regional conflicts and human rights abuses.

Reagan's goal of eliminating all nuclear weapons may be laudable, but it should not be pre-emptive. Our primary goal should be avoiding war, conventional or nuclear.

Opponents of arms controls do not believe that war is inevitable, as Reagan has suggested, but rather that removing deterrents of war makes war more likely.

Arms agreements result from peaceful relations, but do not create peace. Defenses should not be lowered in the hope that this will result in non-aggression on the part of aggressor nations.

Separating arms controls from other issues causes us to ignore actions of other parties that are relevant to our objective of peaceful relations, not simply reducing the manifestations of bad relations.

HOW TO SUBMIT A LETTER TO THE EDITOR:

Reagan stresses common sense in reforming education system

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Reagan said Monday night education reforms like merit pay and a stronger curriculum make “common sense the most popular new kid in America’s schools.”

Reagan emphasized educational excellence in his State of the Union address before Congress, suggesting that misplaced priorities have led to the academic deficiencies recently revealed in the nation’s school.

“We all know the sorry story of the ‘60s and the ‘70s — soaring spending, plummeting test scores — and that hopeful trend of the ‘80s, when we replaced an obsession with dollars with a commitment to quality, and test scores started back up,” Reagan said.

“There is a lesson here that we all should write on the blackboard a hundred times — in a child’s education, money can never take the place of basics like discipline, hard work and yes, homework.”

Reagan denied the educational system is underfunded but rather, “underproductive, under-accountable, and over-regulated.” The Education Department budget for fiscal year 1988 is $20 billion, although the administration requested only $14 billion. At all educational levels, about $310 billion is being spent during fiscal 1987-88.

Among the reforms suggested, Reagan said the teaching profession should be open to all qualified candidates, “not just those with teaching degrees.” He also said good teachers should be encouraged and rewarded with merit pay and the nation’s school curriculum should stress the basics like math, English, science and history.

Educational quality has been a key issue for several years, prompted by a controversial 1983 report by the National Commission on Excellence in Education.

Demos say U.S. should face facts

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Democratic congressional leaders said Monday President Reagan’s “feel-good slogans” in his upbeat assessment of the nation have gone flat amid record budget and trade deficits and warned Americans must face “hard truths” about the economy.

In the formal Democratic response to Reagan’s State of the Union address, House Speaker James Wright, D-Texas, and Senate Democratic leader Robert Byrd of West Virginia charged Reagan’s policies — supply-side economics, increased military spending and tax cuts — have left a grim legacy of fiscal irresponsibility and economic weakness.

The leaders also said Reagan, in his last year in office, must work with the Democratic-controlled Congress to begin mending that legacy through tougher trade laws, better education, job training programs and sensible pay-as-you-go budgets.

“We have come to the end of an era,” Byrd said in the Democrats’ videotaped response, broadcast after Reagan’s annual speech to a joint session of Congress. “The ‘feel-good’ slogans have gone flat with time. The dark side of the Reagan years has only begun to loom.

“The time has finally come for us to face the hard truths that once gave us our self-reliance and world leadership,” Byrd said. “Hard work — on the job and in the classroom. Pay as you go — no free lunches, no running away from the bills due. Helping those in need — but not those with greed.”

Byrd was careful to praise Reagan’s personal qualities and acknowledged his popularity as “a man who can touch the nation’s humor — and make us feel better than we sometimes should.”

In his remarks, Wright urged Reagan to work with Democrats to tackle the nation’s economic problems and set its foreign policy on a steady course.

Reagan proclaimed democracy to be “everywhere on the move” and defended his assertive foreign policy as one that has “replaced ‘Blame America’ with ‘Look up to America.’”

After a year when the Iran-Contra scandal added to the perception that his political clout had been diminished, Reagan hoped to convey a simple message: that 1988 will see him hard at work on what aides described as an unfinished agenda and a still uncertain legacy.

No mention was made of the political crisis that gripped the administration last year. Instead, rosy assessments of the economy and the outlook for improved relations with the Soviet Union highlighted a speech that lived up to earlier White House billing as short on bold new proposals.

White House officials said the absence of fresh initiatives, a contrast to previous years, reflected a sense of realism about what Reagan can expect to accomplish this year.

The president discharged his constitutional duty before a packed House chamber and a national broadcast audience. In attendance for the ceremonial affair in the House were members of Congress, the Supreme Court, the Cabinet and the diplomatic corps. With chairs in the chamber’s well and the visitors’ galleries filled, more than 1,400 officials witnessed the address.

Wet snow fell on the federal city for most of Monday; Pennsylvania Avenue glistened under Washington’s lights as Reagan went to Capitol Hill.

Reagan said his goal in the months to come will be not to dwell on what has been done, but the work that must be completed to fulfill “the hope of beginning something new for America.”

Reagan, who has used past State of the Union addresses to praise “heroes” from all walks of American life, this year singled out his wife, Nancy, for recognition for her work in persuading young people to say no to drugs.

Nieskes said Jones may be eligible for parole in about two and one-half years.

Correction

Marshall Browning Hospital in Du Quoin still performs obstetrics services. An article appearing in the Jan. 22 issue of the DE incorrectly stated that obstetrics services no longer were offered by the hospital.

A car belonging to Charlynn O’Hare of 500 S. Wall St. was burned Sunday morning. Her name was misspelled in Monday’s edition of the Daily Egyptian. She said she did not receive telephone calls related to the incident before it occurred.

ranks 42nd in per capita support of higher education.

“Illinois spends a smaller share of its budget on education today than it did a decade ago,” Pettit said. “Over the last 10 years, 40 of the 50 states have provided greater funding increases for higher education than Illinois.”

Sanders’ academic specialization is communication in politics. He said he will urge people to write legislators for a tax increase.

“Nothing is more convincing to a legislator than receiving thousands of letters from his or her constituency,” Sanders said.

He said no one wants to pay more taxes, but “We’re all interested in our future. Students are paying all they ought to be paying right now.”

The University has done all it can to keep costs down, Pettit said, but needs to increase salaries to stay competitive. SIU-C President John C. Guyon said the University loses 6 to 7 percent of its faculty each year.

“Whether or not one can say that is directly related to faculty salaries is a hard question to answer, but I can tell you this. Our current salary base makes it hard to draw faculty from other institutions,” Guyon said.

While Sanders is away, Michael S. Youngblood, associate dean of the college, will be acting dean.

Sanders said his absence will not have severe effects on the college. “I will probably be missed less than I would like to think,” he said.

Realities of DUI are not a party

By Joe Baker
Wellness Center

Work hard and play hard. You've put a lot of effort into getting into school and staying there, and, in general, consider yourself a responsible person. But remember, like some of your fellow students, your life could change overnight due to one evening's poor judgment about drinking.

Take for example this rather typical scene. You and several friends decide to meet downtown for a few drinks after exams to celebrate. With little sleep for the past three to four days, and with very little food in your system, the several beers you drink produce a strong effect. After a couple hours of talking and drinking, you volunteer to drive everyone over to your favorite restaurant to eat. On the way, the police stop you because your driving is impaired, and you are requested to take a breathalyzer.

In Illinois, any person who drives a motor vehicle is deemed by law to have given consent for chemical testing of blood, breath or urine for the purpose of determining alcohol or drugs in the body when suspected of DUI. A refusal to take a breathalyzer test will result in an automatic 6-month suspension of your driver's license for a first DUI arrest.

The test indicates whether your blood-alcohol level is greater than .10 percent, the legal definition of intoxication. This will mean serious trouble and an unanticipated large expenditure of money that you probably don't even have. Just what can you expect to happen?

The arresting officer will write you a traffic ticket for DUI, a Class A misdemeanor in Illinois. You'll be required either to put up $300 cash; $100 and a valid driver's license, or be transported to see a judge the next day (or the following Monday if it is a weekend). In court, a judge will set bond if you have not already posted the required amount. He will determine your next court date, which will be about a month later.

Your name and DUI arrest will appear in the newspaper and, if you are arrested by Campus Police, the incident will be reported to Student Life for possible further disciplinary action. An evaluation to assess the extent of your alcohol problem will be required by the court. Compliance with recommendations for treatment will be mandatory.

According to Greg Erthal, assistant state's attorney for traffic offenses in Jackson County, most first-time DUI offenders' licenses are automatically suspended for 90 days, and upon conviction, they can lose their license for an additional 12 months and receive court supervision for up to two years. In addition, an average $500 fine will be imposed. Court costs including fine, alcohol evaluation and attorney fees will bring the total cost to approximately $1500-$2000.

A second DUI arrest within five years will result in an automatic revocation of your driver's license, and your automobile insurance company will be notified. Insurance rates for people who have lost their licenses due to DUIs are very expensive because of the higher risks involved. Even with very high deductible amounts, yearly insurance premiums can run as much as $1500 per year or more for full coverage if you're in the 20 to 30 year age bracket. All in all, a DUI conviction will cost you a pretty hefty sum of money, a suspension of your driver's license and a period of court supervision -- a high price to pay for one evening's bad judgement!

SJU security police report they made 85 DUI arrests in 1986 and 52 from January to September 1987. Current trends in law enforcement and the courts point to a considerably less permissive attitude toward alcohol-related crimes than in the past decade -- particularly toward DUI. Most local and national observers believe this trend will continue during the next few years with enforcement getting tougher and penalties becoming harsher.

Don't get caught in the DUI trap. Drinking and driving kills more college students than any other single cause of death. At the very least, getting caught drinking and driving will cost you lots of money and cause a lot of hassle. If you drink, don't drive.

To Your Health is produced in conjunction with the Wellness Center.

NOTICE FROM STUDENT WORK AND FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE. ALL UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS MUST COMPLY WITH THE FOLLOWING SATISFACTORY PROGRESS POLICY IN ORDER TO RECEIVE FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE.

SATISFACTORY PROGRESS POLICY FOR UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS AT SOUTHERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY AT CARBONDALE

The Federal Government, the States, and Southern Illinois University at Carbondale have invested large sums of money in order to provide financially needy students the opportunity to attain a post-secondary education. Financial aid recipients are responsible for using the funds provided in an acceptable manner. Therefore, a student who wishes to benefit from the receipt of financial aid funds must maintain "satisfactory progress" as defined in this policy.

AUTHORITY

The Higher Education Act of 1965 as amended and the final regulations set forth by the Department of Education in 34 CFR 668 require that institutions of higher education establish reasonable standards of "satisfactory progress." A student who does not meet these standards is not eligible to receive federally funded financial aid. Southern Illinois University at Carbondale shall make these standards applicable to all state and institutional aid programs for the purpose of maintaining a consistent and reasonable financial aid policy.

SATISFACTORY PROGRESS STANDARDS

Southern Illinois University at Carbondale requires that a student be making "satisfactory progress" toward a degree if that student wishes to receive financial aid funds. A student is making "satisfactory progress" toward a degree if successfully meeting two basic academic standards. First, a student must complete a reasonable number of credit hours toward a degree each academic year. Second, a student must maintain a scholastic standing, derived from grades, that allows for continued enrollment at the University under current academic guidelines. The following parameters will be used to define these two basic academic standards:

MODEL FOR FULL-TIME ATTENDANCE

SIUC Academic Terms Completed	SIUC Cumulative Hours Passed
3	24
4	32
5	40
6	48
7	56
8	64
9	72
10	80

1) Maximum time to graduate: A full-time, eligible student is expected to complete a degree in six academic years (12 semesters). A half-time, eligible student is expected to complete a degree in twelve academic years (24 semesters). In order to be sure that a student is progressing toward that goal, each student's progress will be measured annually after Spring Semester to determine the progress made for the last academic year of attendance. Each term of at least half-time attendance shall be included in the annual review whether or not the student received financial aid for the term. The following chart will serve as a model to determine if each student is meeting this requirement of "satisfactory progress."

2) Grades: A student must remain in compliance with the University's policy concerning scholastic standing, grades, and grade point average as defined under the topic "Grading, Scholastic Regulations, and Credit" in the current Undergraduate Catalog Bulletin. A student who is on Scholastic Suspension is not maintaining "satisfactory progress." A student who is scholastically suspended may be readmitted under Scholastic Probation status by the appropriate academic dean and remain eligible for financial aid. Each student's scholastic standing will be monitored after each semester or term of attendance.

A student who does not meet either or both of the standards set forth above and who cannot show "mitigating circumstances" is not maintaining "satisfactory progress" toward a degree and is no longer eligible to receive financial aid funds. (See Appeals.)

Nothing in this policy shall be construed as a reduction of external requirements by other federal, state, public, or private agencies when they award or control financial aid. Examples of such agencies are: Veterans Administration, Vocational Rehabilitation, and the NCAA.

DEFINITIONS

Credit hours completed shall be defined as the total number of academic credit hours for which a student receives any grade other than a failing grade. Incompletes, withdrawals, audits, and remedial courses which do not count toward a degree shall not be considered as credit hours completed. Credit hours received for repeated courses shall be counted only once.

Eligible students shall be defined as those students who are admitted to the University in a degree-seeking classification. All other students are not eligible for financial aid.

Full-time attendance for undergraduates shall be defined as enrollment in twelve (12) hours or more per semester. Half-time attendance for undergraduates shall be defined as enrollment in more than five (5) hours and less than twelve (12) hours per semester.

Undergraduate shall be defined as a student who is a freshman, sophomore, junior, senior or a senior with a bachelors degree seeking a second bachelors.

NOTIFICATION OF TERMINATION

It shall be the responsibility of the Office of Student Work and Financial Assistance to publish this policy and to notify by letter any student who is no longer eligible to receive financial aid funds. Said notice shall be addressed to the student's most current home address on file with the University. IT SHALL BE THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE STUDENT TO INFORM THE UNIVERSITY OF A CORRECT HOME ADDRESS AT ALL TIMES. Student's academic deans shall receive copies of all notice letters.

REINSTATEMENT

Students will have their eligibility to receive financial aid reinstated when they have reached the level of satisfactory progress required of them by this policy. They may achieve this status by the completion of incomplete grades, correction of incorrect grades, and by earning more than the required number of completed hours for a term or terms without the benefit of financial aid.

APPEALS

Any student who cannot meet the grades requirement or the cumulative credit hours completion requirement, shall have an opportunity to appeal in writing to explain "mitigating circumstances." The appeal should be sent to the Financial Aid Advisory Committee within 15 days of the notice of termination. The Financial Aid Advisory Committee will review the "mitigating circumstances" documented in the appeal and provide a written decision within 20 days after receipt of the appeal.

Tax help offered

People needing assistance with tax matters can call three toll-free numbers provided by the IRS.

To order a tax form or publication, call 1-800-424-3876 Mon. through Fri. 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. and Sat. 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Men's gymnastics team loses dual meet at Ohio

By Stephanie Wood
Staff Writer

The men's gymnastics team had one first-place finish in its first dual meet of the season.

The Salukis, 0-1, lost to Ohio State Friday, 280.60 to 262.30. The Buckeyes moved to 2-0.

"The meet didn't really go that well, but we're a young team," senior Tom Ghielmi said.

Ghielmi placed first in the vault. He tied with OSU's Gil Pinto with a score of 9.45.

Pinto won four of the six events and the all-around best competition with a score of 57.15 to lead the Buckeyes.

Saluki junior Brent Reed was the team's highest scorer in three events, with a 9.55 on the pommel horse, 8.85 on the parallel bars and 9.5 on the high bar. He scored 54.20 in the all-around competition.

Sophomore Scott Belanger paced the Salukis in the floor exercise with an 8.85.

"I look for Brent, me, Marcus (Mulholland), and Scott to become more consistent as the season continues," Ghielmi said.

Freshman Greg Zeiders turned in a personal best all-around performance with a score of 52.25.

Hockey club faces Chargers tonight

The SIU Wild Dogs hockey club will take on the Evansville Chargers at 8 tonight at Swonder Ice Rink in Evansville, Ind.

The Dogs will play the Evansville Horizons at 8 p.m. Thursday also at Swonder.

A third period goal by newcomer Mike Pabor led the club to a 4-3 victory against the Chargers last Thursday. "We played fair, just good enough to win," captain Scott Boehm said.

If you are starting an exercise program, here are some factors to consider:

- Your present health and physical capabilities.
- What type of activities do you enjoy? Are you sociable or a loner?
- Set realistic goals...it's easier to stick with it if you feel successful.
- Choose an exercise you can fit into your schedule.
- Can you adapt your activity to the weather?
- Equipment and availability of facilities (court, gym, track, showers).

The Wellness Center offers groups, workshops and individual counseling on fitness and exercise. For more information, call 536-4441.

Recreation program offers activities for the disabled

By Jeff Grieser
Staff Writer

Wheelchair basketball, swimming and bowling are being offered by the Disabled Student Recreation Program this semester.

Other events include billiards night, wheelchair tennis and track and field. Workouts, fitness programs and center-sponsored trips also are offered.

Graduate assistant Kathie Kurtz, who coordinates the activities, said students, disabled or not, can take part in the program.

No registration is necessary for the events,

Students, disabled or not, can take part in the program.

Kurtz said. "Just show up," she said.

Some upcoming events include a ski trip to the St. Louis area.

A variety of equipment for disabled athletes is available for checkout through the office of Disabled Student Recreation.

For details, call Kurtz at 536-5531.

Swim team members make some noise during Saturday's meet. The men's swim team is ranked No. 16 nationally.

Just relaying a message

The chants and cheers for the men's swim team have reverberated off the concrete walls of the Recreation Center natatorium since 1977, when the Salukis finished 16th in the NCAA.

Nowadays, Coach Doug Ingram's unit is making noise beyond its home facility, boasting a No. 16 national ranking and a 7-4 record.

When it comes down to the wire, as it did Saturday against Cincinnati, the Salukis call upon the nation's best 400-yard freestyle relay team to keep the winning going.

But when it comes to receiving the print and broadcast recognition the team deserves, it's left wanting.

Before about 60 fans, who were on their feet clapping and hollering, senior co-captain Kevin Nagy pulled ahead of Cincinnati's John Harkrader with an unofficial split-time of 45.69 seconds in the anchor leg for a 61-52 SIU-C victory.

"It was closer than it should have been," Ingram said. "I've got some goals that are pretty lofty."

Ingram has his sights set on finishing among the final eight at the national championships, with the 400-yard freestylers leading the way.

"We are so young," Ingram said. "It's going to take those guys to be leaders to Harri Garmendia had a time of 1:48:02 in the 200-yard butterfly event Saturday.

step up against the best of the country."

On Saturday the relay team was Jeff Goelz, David Morovitz, Sean Morrissey and Nagy. When the Salukis set the season's best time of 2:59.08 against Auburn on Dec. 11 at the Rec Center, the relay team had been Morrissey, Scott Roberts, Goelz and Nagy.

As Ingram points out, the relay team is a group of young men capable of carrying the Saluki flame. Not only do the team members have the ability, they have the right attitude.

"They are class individuals, in and out of the water," Ingram said. "They have a lot of character."

After getting high-altitude training in Colorado Springs, Colo., in early January, the Salukis are concentrating on weight training.

With the 400 freestylers setting the pace, the team's extra work could pay off with more success in April in Indianapolis at the NCAA finals.

That would really be something to shout about.

Football office signs 6

By Dave Miller
Staff Writer

Six junior college football players, including a quarterback, have signed with the Salukis, the football office announced Monday.

The six signees, three on offense and three on defense, are attending SIU-C this semester.

The offensive players are Raymond Monica, a 6-foot-2, 185-pound quarterback from Garyville, La., and Northeast Mississippi Junior College; Joey O'Conner, a 6-foot-2½, 260-pound lineman from Fayetteville, Tenn., and Itawamba (Miss.) Junior College; and Reese Youmans, a 6-foot-7, 275-pound lineman from St. Petersburg, Fla., and Northeast Mississippi Junior College.

The defensive players are William Perry, a 6-foot, 190-pound defensive back from Americus, Ga., and Northeast Oklahoma Junior College; Spencer Moncrief, a 5-foot-11, 185-pound defensive back from Raleigh, Miss., and Jones County (Miss.) Junior College; and Brian Miller, a 6-foot-4, 220-pound linebacker from Massapequa, N.Y., and Nassau (N.Y.) Community College.

Coach Ray Dorr is recruiting in the Chicago area this week.

Cubs issue light warning

CHICAGO (UPI) — The Chicago Cubs will consider moving to another city if the City Council fails to enact legislation to allow the team to play a limited number of night games at Wrigley Field this season, a team executive warned Monday.

"Without the ability to play night baseball, we would be forced to consider moving to another municipality where we could operate under more reasonable conditions," Cubs Chairman John Madigan said. "Without some sort of modernization, this part of Chicago's history is in jeopardy."

MVC honors two players

Jarrod Coleman of Illinois State and Sam Roark of Drake were named Missouri Valley Conference co-Players of the Week on Monday.

Coleman, a sophomore forward, scored 42 points, grabbed 16 rebounds and blocked two shots in Illinois State home wins against Indiana State and SIU-C.

Roark, a sophomore forward, scored 29 points and had 23 rebounds in Drake home victories against Tulsa and Wichita State.

Transfer looking forward to SIU-C

By Dave Miller
Staff Writer

Coach Rich Herrin experienced a change of pace when he was on the receiving end of a telephone call with a potential Saluki last week. Instead of pursuing a player, a player was pursuing SIU-C.

That telephone conversation resulted in Jerry Jones, a 6-foot-6, 230-pound forward, transferring to SIU-C from the University of Texas-El Paso. He will be eligible to play after the fall semester next season and has one and a half years of eligibility remaining.

Jones averaged 5.1 points and 3.9 rebounds a game in 10 games for UTEP this season. He played an average of 14.2 minutes per game.

Jones, who is from Chicago, said he came to SIU-C to be closer to home and to

"I was really just playing a role down there because they had (three) seniors (at forward). It was just a nightmare there because I wanted to show what I could do."

— Jerry Jones

get more playing time.

"I tried to make things work down there," Jones said. "The coaching staff was nice but I wasn't getting quite the time I wanted. They told me I was going to be a good player but that it was going to take time. I just couldn't wait."

"I was really just playing a role down there because they had (three) seniors (at forward)," he said. "It was just a nightmare there because I wanted to show what I could do."

Jones was named a Converse All-American when he was senior at Hillcrest High School in Country Club Hills. He averaged 23 points and 14.5 rebounds and led the team to a 25-2 record.

Jones had difficulty adjusting to Texas-El Paso. He averaged 1.7 points and 1.5 rebounds his first season after being redshirted during the 1985-86 season. He left the school three times, the last time in December when he went home for Christmas.

Jones will practice with the Salukis for the remainder of the season and will attend summer school.
